

FOR April 14, 2015

Air National Guard members return from Africa deployment

JOINT BASE ELMENDORF-RICHARDSON, Alaska — Approximately 30 members of the Alaska Air National Guard are scheduled to return here Tuesday after a four-month deployment to the Horn of Africa in support of Operation Enduring Freedom.

The Guardsmen from the 211th Rescue Squadron, 176th Operations Group, and 176th Maintenance Squadron were deployed to Djibouti as part of the Combined Joint Task Force – Horn of Africa mission.

The Air Guardsmen are scheduled to return to JBER Tuesday, April 14, at 2:30 p.m.

Details:

What: 211th Rescue Squadron, 176th Operations Group, 176th Maintenance Squadron return from OEF deployment

When: Tuesday, April 14 at 2:30 p.m.

Where: Hangar 18, Joint Base Elmendorf-Richardson

Note: Media interested in attending the event, please call Staff Sgt. Edward Eagerton at 552-3959 by 1:30 p.m and plan to meet at the Boniface gate at 2 p.m. Please leave a voicemail with your name, affiliation and cell phone number so that you can be contacted if there is a change in arrival time.

###